

Press report

Auction with exclusive 24 hours BRM V8 campione Dubai watch for young people with a physical handicap

*Driver Menno Kuus is ambassador from foundation
Intermobiel*

Dubai – 13 January 2007: During the party after the second 24 hours race in Dubai there's a caution for charity. The last exclusive available BRM V8 Campione Dubai watch is for sale through a auction. There are only 24 Dubai BRM watches. This is a watch every race fan should have. The profit is for the foundation Intermobiel. This idea is coming from the drivers Menno Kuus, who is ambassador of the foundation Intermobiel, and Gosse Stielstra.

The First Motorsport team drives during the 24 hours race in Dubai with the name of the foundation Intermobiel on the car. The First Motorsport team is driving with two cars in the Porsche GT3 cup. They wear also the name of Intermobiel on their clothing. Teamdriver Olivier Tielemans is also supporting the foundation Intermobiel. He is member of the committee of recommendation from the foundation Intermobiel. Menno Kuus: "We hope that many people will bid on this exclusive watch so that the profit is high so that Intermobiel can help many young people with a serious handicap."

About the foundation Intermobiel

Foundation Intermobiel has a website www.intermobiel.com as digital meetingplace and knowledgeplatform for young people who are through a handicap or chronic disease bounded at home or bed. These young people get easily in a social isolation. Foundation Intermobiel makes it possible through internet to get in contact with fellow-sufferers who know what it is to look every day at the same walls. Beside that the foundation Intermobiel sets in to get a accessible environment where also place is for wheel chairs, stretchers and beds. These young people are like normal healthy young people who likes to go out and go on holiday with friends and family.

Note for the press

For more information and questions you can contact Menno Kuus

e-mail: menno@kuus.com

For more information about foundation Intermobiel look at www.intermobiel.com